VIRGINIA CHAMBER ORCHESTRA CONCERT
CELEBRATES WOMEN IN THE ARTS

Music, Poetry, Visual Arts Share Spotlight on March 14th

Led by new Music Director Emil de Cou, the Virginia Chamber Orchestra’s March concert will “Celebrate Women in the Arts!” Maestro de Cou is well known to area audiences as Associate Conductor of the National Symphony Orchestra and NSO@Wolf Trap Festival Conductor.

The program, scheduled for Sunday, March 14 at 4 P.M., will be part of Virginia’s first statewide celebration entitled “Minds Wide Open: Virginia Celebrates Women in the Arts.” Emil de Cou has invited the National Symphony’s Marissa Regni to appear as violin soloist in “The Four Seasons” by Vivaldi. Claudia Emerson, winner of the 2006

Pulitzer Prize for poetry and current Poet Laureate of Virginia, will read four sonnets found with the original manuscript. Landscapes by Jean Schwartz, inspired by the luminosity of the seasons, will be on display. The Cantate Chamber Singers will make their first appearance with the Virginia Chamber Orchestra in Purcell's "Welcome to All the Pleasures." The orchestra will also perform J. S. Bach's Brandenburg Concerto No. 3.

Gisele Becker, Music Director of the Cantate Singers, will be recognized for her outstanding contributions to the arts, as will Marissa Regni, Claudia Emerson, and Jean Schwartz. Marissa Regni, a Virginia resident, is Principal Second Violin in the National Symphony Orchestra and a founding member of the Kennedy Center Chamber Players. Virginia artist Jean Schwarz is featured in the January issue of Elan magazine. In recent years she has focused on landscape painting and the seasonal aspects of her work will compliment the performance of The Four Seasons by Vivaldi. A group of her paintings will be on view in the gallery adjoining the concert venue, the Ernst Community Cultural Center at 8333 Little River Turnpike, on the Annandale Campus of the Northern Virginia Community College.

Parking is free. A complimentary reception will follow the concert. Additional information is available at www.virginiachamberorchestra.org.

The Virginia Chamber Orchestra's mission is to perform fine music with the highest artistic integrity for the broadest possible audience, within the limits of fiscal responsibility.
